Crawford Tops Michigan In Independence Bond Drive

In the Independence Bond Drive through June 3, Crawford County ranked number 1 in the percentage of quota raised, John Bruun, County chairman announced this week.

Crawford County has attained 210.72 percentage of its quota in already selling $8,321 against a quota of $3,900. Thus far $7,019, 687 has been sold in the state of Michigan which is 24 per cent of the state quota.

In a letter from Delmar V. Cole, State Director for the U. S. Savings Bond Division of the Treasury Department, it was revealed that a county should have reached at least a third of its quota by that date.

With the drive scheduled to carry through to July 4, with Independence Day making the last big day of the drive, Crawford County has an excellent opportunity to hang up a record that will be the envy of the state, Chairman Bruun said, in urging every county citizen to buy at least one Series E, U. S. Savings Bond during the county drive.

Mobile X-Ray Unit Here

The Mobile X-Ray Unit from the Michigan Department of Health will be at the Township Hall in Grayling the afternoon of next Thursday, June 22 and all day, Friday, June 23.

The visit of the unit is sponsored by the District Health Department for Crawford, Kalamazoo, Missaukee, Roscommon and Westland Counties. A yearly chest X-Ray is the safest, surest step toward combating tuberculosis. Dr. C. E. Merritt, director of the Department said.

Tuberculosis leads all other diseases as the cause of death between the ages of 15 and 44, it was pointed out. Approximately 50,000 persons a year die from the disease and a half-million people in this country are estimated to have active tuberculosis and of these only one-half are known to the health authorities.

One out of every two adults in the United States is estimated to have tubercle bacilli in his system, which might lead to active disease. Early tuberculosis frequently has no symptoms of any kind. The greatest safeguard against tuberculosis is excellent health. Active disease does not occur so long as the body's resistance can successfully fight germs.

Tuberculosis is contagious. It is spread through coughing, sneezing, and personal contacts. Tuberculosis is curable. The sooner the presence of tuberculosis is determined the quicker the cure and the safer your friends and family will be from contagion.

Kiwanis Club Notes

Past President Art Clough was in charge of the program at this week's meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling held at the Lone Pine Inn Monday evening.

A trip of inspection through the Grayling Log Cabin Company, located just north of the Lone Pine Inn was the program. Mr. Clough explained the method of obtaining the logs and then sawing them into squares and piling them to air dry. The logs are squared for ease in handling and also to eliminate the bark which draws borers.

The square logs are then moved into the plant where they are fastened securely into a machine of the speakers design and are moved through to terrifically high speed cutting heads that trim the log into a perfect round. The machine moves on and a tongue and groove is placed on the side of the logs by another pair of cutting heads. The speaker then showed how the log is dipped into a tank to stop mould and fungus growth. A machine to cut out corners also was demonstrated to the club.

The program was interesting and informative and was enjoyed by the members attending.

Your Support Asked - And Needed

The support of every person in this area is asked—and needed by the Grayling Chamber of Commerce and the Grayling Golf Club.

These two institutions aid the business life of Grayling greatly. Neither are probably operated in just the manner in which you would like them to be at all times, but, what is? They are both helping to bring tourists to Grayling and to give them something to do while they are here. They merit your support and should not have to beg for it. Join them and let your ideas be known if you do not approve of some of their activities. You can't very well change their actions by staying a non-member and yelping about their policies.

Both organizations have gone through the agonies of re-birth in the past few years and several Grayling men have given much of their time and efforts and in some cases — money in order that these two needed tourist-pleasing agencies would continue to operate. They are working for your good and mine.

The success of the tourist trade in Grayling and Crawford County is the barometer to every business in our area. If we have a good tourist year, we all benefit. If it is mediocre or bad, we all suffer. It is all well and good for you to say that your business does not rely upon the tourist trade, but, every business house in the area either directly or indirectly leans upon the tourist dollar. Groups that are formed to promote and entertain this type of trade are for everyone's benefit. Make no mistake—nine out of every ten dollars spent in this county this year will have its source from a tourist, hunter or fisherman.

Are you going to get behind Grayling and help the progressive people, at least, try to get ahead, or are you going to be one of the free-riders? — R. W. S.

MARTIN'S HI-SPEED SERVICE

How SMOOTH can a ride be?

THAT'S a question well worth answering before you settle on your next automobile.

For what fun is there—what thrill—in a car that is prisoner to the city streets, slowed down by roads a Buick is built to take in stride?

So we'd like to show you just how much smoothness your money can buy. How levelly you float over cobbles and car tracks—over rutty gravel and wavy black-top—in this stunning traveler.

The car will be any Buick you prefer—SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER. You can name the place—pick a spot or a stretch you know so that you can measure Buick's smoothness against your own experience—and we'll promise you a new sensation in riding comfort.

The time can be any time you want to arrange with your Buick dealer—who is ready to show with actual figures that "if you can afford a new car you can afford a Buick."

See him, will you, and treat yourself to some real comfort?

Only Buick has Dynaflow and with it goes:

MONO-COMPRESSION Fireball valves in head power in three engines (New V-263 engine in SUPER models) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fender, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISION, clear-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride bias, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher

Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost: SUPER and SPECIAL models

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT

This rugged front-end (1) easy-to-tilt style nose, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

Seniors Enjoy "Skip Day"

Saturday morning, May 27, the class left Grayling by bus for Detroit, where they boarded the D. & C. boat Greater Detroit, for the week end cruise to Niagara Falls. We arrived in Buffalo shortly after 9 o'clock. From there we took a special train to the Falls. About 8 o'clock were were back on the boat for the trip home. Many forms of entertainment were provided on the boat such as square dancing, dancing, ping pong shuffle board and a Grand March and talent show.

After arriving in Detroit we went to the various rooms at the Hotel Ford Shelby. Then we were free to do as we chose until 3 o'clock. At that time we were taken through the Detroit News building and radio and television stations. That evening the class went to the stage show, "Miss Kate."

Tuesday afternoon most of the class attended the double header between Detroit and Cleveland, some of the others watched the Memorial Day parade.

After the game we boarded our bus again and headed for home. After having to wait for another bus for an hour outside of Pontiac, we arrived home about 2:30 Wednesday morning. All seniors were excused from school Wednesday morning, so they could catch up on some sleep. Most of us really needed it too.

The group was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Joseph and Dr. and Mrs. Louis Hayes.

To Hold Iris Show At Mio

The Mio Irisarians, in co-operation with the American Iris Society, will hold Northeast Michigan's sixth annual Iris Show at the Mio Community Building, Saturday, June 17, 1950, weather permitting. It may be necessary to postpone the show if the iris blooms are not sufficiently advanced.

Again this amateur group of iris enthusiasts assume the lead, in Michigan, of carrying on, encouraging, and promoting the raising of iris as amateurs in a section where this beautiful flower was unheard of previously. They have conducted the only accredited iris shows in this state since 1940, at which time the Detroit Iris Society held their last show. Considerable interest has been aroused in this event among the garden clubs and individuals throughout the counties of North-eastern Michigan, and keen competition has been developed in the specimen stalk classes. Likewise, interest has been increased in the flower arrangement section of these shows. This section is fast becoming one of the outstanding parts of these shows.

An oriental poppy section was added the third year and this year's show will have added an entirely new section of hemerocallis (Day Lilies).

Schedules for the 1950 show can be secured by writing the show secretary, Mr. Devere Deckham, Mio, Michigan. Entry blanks may also be secured at the same time if requested.

The official American Iris Society judge for this show will be Almost everybody has a good word for the immensely popular Pontiac. The most enthusiastic spokesmen are those who own this great car. The facts behind this admiration of Pontiac are very simple—Pontiac is America's lowest-priced Straight Eight. Pontiac is the lowest-priced car with GM Hydra-Matic Drive. Pontiac is the most beautiful thing on wheels. And Pontiac is famed everywhere for its dependability and economy.

Those are the facts, and they are impressive. But they are a lot more impressive to the person behind the wheel of a Pontiac. He knows for sure that dollar for dollar, you can't beat a Pontiac!

Meat

Loaf

By Richard Hill Williamson

SHERIFF FELIX BRENDLINGER was just about to sit down to his supper when the telephone rang. He looked at the instrument ruefully. Before him was a heaping plate of meat loaf, fried potatoes and fresh green peas.

Felix sighed, glanced across at Elvira, then moved to the wall phone. "Hello," he said.

"This is Chris Verne out at the Rowland camp," came a low and excited voice. "Someone's just broken into the front room. I'm hiding in the library, but I may need help."

It was five miles to the Rowland camp by way of the river road. Felix made it in eight minutes, despite the ancient vintage of his rattley car. Chris Verne came down the steps to meet him.

"Too late, Sheriff. He got away. We had quite a tussle, but he whacked me on the melon and I was out like a light for three or four minutes." The tall, rangy caretaker gingerly felt of a bump on his head.

"Get away with anything?" Felix asked.

"Don't know yet. I was looking when you drove up. Come on in and we'll see."

The caretaker went directly to the safe behind the fireplace.

"Well," he ejaculated. "Well, I can kiss this job goodbye. Rowland will never keep me on when he finds out those bonds are gone."

"Bonds?"

"He was up here over the week-end. He had a lot of negotiable bonds and left them in the safe. Figured this would be the last place anyone would look. Well, he figured wrong."

"Did you get a look at the thief?"

"Not much of one. It was dark. I was in the kitchen getting myself some supper, when I heard a noise in front. I switched on the light and listened. It sounded like someone was trying to pick the front door lock. Thinking of the bonds."

Whaley - Funck Wed

with fitted bodice and net yoke trimmed with seed pearls, and four gored skirt. She wore matching elbow length fingerless gloves and a fingertip veil of nylon marquisette, lace trimmed and held in place by a wreath of white flowers. She wore a string of pearls, gift of the groom and carried a handkerchief used by her mother at her own wedding twenty-four years ago. Her colonial bouquet of red and white roses and lilies of the valley was tied with white ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Robert Funck of Grayling, sister-in-law of the groom, attended the bride. Her gown of ice blue satin was made identical to the brides. She also wore fingerless, elbow length gloves matching her dress and a short veil with wreath of blue flowers. She carried a colonial bouquet of Tallman roses and lilies of the valley.

The best man was Robert Funck of Grayling, brother of the groom. Little Kitty Lee Funck, daughter of the attendants, was flower girl. Dressed in ruffled pink satin and pink headress she dropped peony petals from a pin satin covered basket.

Seating the guests were Ray Whaley, brother of the bride, Erwin Whaley of Cadillac and Laurence Cady of Grayling.

Mrs. Whaley chose a navy ensemble and white accessories for her daughters wedding. Mrs. Funck wore navy with navy accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink carnations and snapdragons.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors which were decorated with bouquets of white lilies.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Whaley of Cadillac were master and mistress of ceremonies. Refreshments were served from a linen covered table centered with a five-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked on either side by double candlesticks with tall white tapered tapers tied with bows of blue, white and yellow ribbon. Bows of the same held in place garlands of cedar edging the table.

Mrs. Floyd Whaley cut the cake and the guests were served by Mrs. Irvin Townsend, Mrs. Laurence Whaley, Miss Arlene Erdman and Mrs. Edward Benson. Mrs. Eldon Benson assisted with the decorations.

The couple left on a wedding trip through the Upper Peninsula, Wisconsin and possibly into Nebraska, and expect to return in twelve days for a brief visit before making their home in Milwaukee, Wisconsin after June 25th, where the groom will enter college to study electrical engineering. The bride wore a going away ensemble of navy blue with white accessories and a corsage of red and white roses.

The bride is a graduate of Cadillac High School and has worked for four years as laboratory technician in Mercy Hospital at Cadillac and Grayling.

The groom graduated from Grayling High School and served his country for four years in the air-borne infantry, 18 months of which were spent in the South Pacific. For four years he has been night engineer at the Grayling Water and Light Company.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. Otto Kiebschull, grandfather of the bride and her aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Harding and Mrs. Andrew Hawkins, and Mr. Hawkins and children all of Memphis, Tennessee; Mrs. Elizabeth Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Whaley of Grand Rapids; Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Whaley and children of Cedar Springs; Mrs. J. C. Briggs, Mrs. Gordon Beal and son, Dean, of Ferndale; Mrs. Nancy McKinney and Jean Mers of Gering, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clinger and daughters, Evelyn and Cora Lee of Royal Oak; Frank Cole of Glen Ellen, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Funck, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Funck and children, Kitty Lee and Peter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted McEvers, Miss Ruby Fox, Miss Sally Borchers, Leon St. John and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cady, all of Grayling.

Chris shot a quick, sharp look at the officer, but Felix already had begun to browse around.

numbers, when suddenly the lights went out.

"Hey!" Chris yelled, startled.

"Who did that?"

"Keep right on dialing, Chris," Felix said from the doorway. "Fuss musta blown."

"Don't be dumb. I can't dial in the dark."

"Try it," Felix insisted.

"Are you crazy? I can't see a thing."

"Good!" said Felix. He snatched on the lights. In his hand he held the old time long barreled six-shooter that had served him during his many years as law officer. "All right Chris, nemine dialing any more."

"Say, what is this?" The caretaker replaced the receiver on its hook slowly.

"We'll talk about it later, Chris, an' look around for the bonds. In the meantime, you come with me. You can spend the night in the lock-up an', by links, without no supper too. That's what you git for makin' me let mine go cold."

Chris blinked. "What the devil are you talking about?"

"Come, come, Chris. Play actin' ain't gonna do you any good. I got a hunch it was you stole them bonds, and busted the lock on the front door, too. At any rate, you didn't hastily dial my number in the dark, like you said. You just settled your own hash by proving it can't be done. An' speakin' of hash, come along."

It appearing to the Court that

July 1, 1950 will be a red letter day for Michigan's newest educational institution, Ferris Institute, at Big Rapids.

It marks the occasion when this trade school, founded 64 years ago by Woodbridge N. Ferris, becomes a state vocational training center. When the State legislature in April, 1949 voted to accept the institute as an outright gift, it did two things:

First, recognition by the State of Michigan that Ferris Institute would fill a big gap in our present educational system. Ferris has specialized in vocational education. Not every high school graduate can afford to attend college; not every graduate has capacities to attain a college degree. But nearly every high school graduate may learn a useful trade, a valuable livelihood, by taking a program of vocational training.

The legislature also paid recognition to the fact that Ferris Institute was a going concern with assets of more than $1,000,000.

It's tradition of practical education is liberal in scope; thousands of men and women with no more formal education than the eighth grade have profitably pursued practical studies at Ferris.

High school youths may attend specialized trade courses in the following: Watch and clock repair, architectural or machine drafting, refrigeration and air conditioning, radio and electronics, printing.

stenographic and secretarial, higher accounting, business administration, B. S. degree in pharmacy, B. S. degree on commerce of science—teacher training—college preparatory (high school), and advertising-salesmanship.

Some of these courses are short in time; others run for four years.

The one-time superintendent of schools at Pittsfield, Illinois, became the founder of Ferris Institute. Mr. Ferris founded the school September 1, 1884, as the Big Rapids Industrial School. Later, the name was changed to Ferris Industrial School and, in 1899 shortened to Ferris Institute.

In January, 1902, the Pharmacy building was completed for four-year training. In 1912 when Republicans were feuding over the Progressive movement, Ferris was elected governor on the Democratic ticket. He then became United States Senator and died in Washington in 1928 while serving as senior senator from Michigan. Arthur H. Vandenberg was named as his successor.

The school has had its ups and downs during the depression of the '30s the enrollment dwindled to less than 300 students as compared with nearly 1,200 today.

When the school officially becomes a state institution on July 1, Ferris Institute will have achieved the educational record of having trained more than 75,000 men and women for the actual duties of life.

President Byron Brophy is proud of this tradition.

He is determined to carry on the founding spirit of Woodbridge N. Ferris in the new coming era of public service.

You'll hear much about Ferris Institute in the years ahead.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Oh—My Aching Feet!

Other night just as I was settling down with a book and a mellow glass of beer, the wife calls down, "Joe—I almost forgot—you and I are going over to the High School and take dancing lessons!"

Now, I can wait with the best of them, so I put up a quiet struggle against going but it was no use. Turns out it was the class in square dancing. And from the look on some of the other men I judged I wasn't the only one there who had been taken by surprise!

Miss Williams and Curly Lawson taught us what to do with our feet, and before it was over, darn if I wasn't actually enjoying myself. Going back next week, too!

From where I sit, we sometimes get an idea into our head for or against something and then hang onto it for dear life. Whether it's square dancing, or the right to enjoy temperate beer or ale now and then, we owe it to ourselves as Americans to take an open-minded attitude—that's even after we make up our minds about it!
